About Brett

Brett Lechtenberg helps business owners, leaders, and teams perform at their best. His work, grounded in flow and peak performance research, covers entrepreneurial coaching, building and running business systems, personal mastery, and family safety.

Brett holds an 8th-degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do and black belts in various other martial arts. Brett has used his martial arts school, Personal Mastery Martial Arts, as a laboratory for his personal development training, business systems, and his philosophies on personal mastery and flow state management for over 30 years.

Are You Ready?

Six Outcomes You Can Expect

Lasting Impact

Your people leave with practical tools they keep using long after the event ends, not a burst of energy that fades by Friday.

Tailored Customization

Brett goes beyond the typical keynote with high-level customization that resonates with YOUR audience. They will feel as though the keynote is crafted specifically for them.

Actionable Insights

Brett equips the audience with actionable tools they can implement immediately. Attendees will walk away with straightforward, practical strategies to thrive in their personal and professional lives.

Grounded Presence

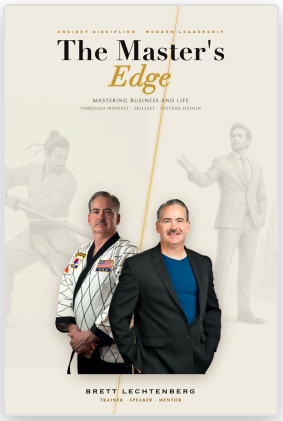

Calm, confident delivery that holds a room without hype. Brett reads the audience and meets them where they are, on stage and off.

Evidence-Based

Brett's keynotes integrate science-backed strategies and real-world experiences with captivating storytelling to provide audiences with the inspiration and tools for enduring confidence and success.

Engaging Humor

Humor is a vital element in Brett's core keynote stories. With a natural talent for fun and engaging performances, Brett leaves audiences laughing and inspired, creating a lasting positive impact.
